

NEW BOOKS WORTH READING

BIBLE STORIES (Old Testament). Edited by Prof. Richard G. Moulton. The Macmillan Company. 50 cts.

The stories are told in the exact words of Scripture, the only changes being omissions. Each story is followed by useful explanatory notes.

AMERICA IN HAWAII. By Edmund Jones Carpenter. Small, Maynard & Co. $1.50.

The causes which have made American influence predominant in Hawaii and which ultimately led to its annexation, clearly and interestingly traced.

MOTHER-SONG AND CHILD-SONG. Edited by Charlotte Brewster Jordan. F. A. Stokes Company.

A comprehensive collection of the best of recent verse for mothers and children. More than one hundred authors are represented.