

OPERA HOUSES.

"WE FURNISH THE POINTERS, YOU GET THE BUSINESS."

Rock Island, Ill.—George H. Johnston, the opera house promoter of Saint Louis, Mo., will co-operate with the Rock Island Club for the erection of a new theatre, to cost about $50,000. Plans will be on file in office of Drack & Kerns, Mitchell & Lynde building, Rock Island.

Green Bay, Wis.—It is reported that Henry Hogenmeister will remodel the exposition building, converting it into a summer theatre.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Press reports state that Hugh McGowan, general manager of the Indianapolis Street Railway Company, will head a movement to build a convention hall in this city.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Press reports state that P. A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins will erect a new opera house on the site of the Academy of Music at Broad and Locust streets.

Norfolk, Va.—Plans have been prepared for an opera house, to be erected in this city by B. F. Keith of New York.

Jacksonville, Fla.—Press reports state that plans are being prepared for a $75,000 theatre, to be built by A. G. Rhodes of Atlanta, Ga., at Main and Duval streets.
