

New Music.

We have received a copy of "Sunday-school Songs." The publishers claim "that the hymns are far above the average; they have been selected with unusual care; that the music is sweet and chaste, and will stand wear." The price is 35 cents. Cleveland: Lauer & Yost.

From John Church & Co., 66 W. Fourth St.

"Snow-bird Waltz," by Frank L. Hunt. Price, 30 cts.

"Mountain Echo Quickstep," by J. A. Buxton. Price, 5 cts.

"Concert Song: The Violet," by Blischoff. Price, 50 cents.

"Concert Song: On the Ocean," by Franz. Price, 30 cents.

"Jolly Boy's Gallop," for Piano, by J. E. Ebrenz. Price, 30 cents.

May Festival Music: "Hungarian March," by Berlioz. Price, 50 cents.

"An Invitation," by Violet Hunt. Pastoral in Landler form, by C. C. Guilford. Price, 30 cents.

"Forever Joyful." Arranged for piano, by Hermann. Price, 35 cents.

"Cincinnati Southern R. R. Inauguration March," by Adolph Pferdner. Price, 35 cents.

Cincinnati Prize Composition, 1880. Selections from Longfellow's Golden Legend, by Dudley Buck. Vocal.

"The Night is Calm and Cloudless." Arranged as soprano solo. Price, 50 cents. "Behold the Hilltops all Aglow." Duet, soprano and tenor. Price, 50 cts.

"Hail, thou Vintage." Baritone and male chorus.