

FROM A CLOUD OF WITNESSES Three Hundred and Nine Tributes to the Bible By Davis Waggett Clark Cincinnati. Curts & Jennings New York. Eaton & Mains. 12mo Cloth and gold, gilt top, rough edges Printed on laid paper, in two colors 215 pages

We believe this to be the richest compilation of its kind that has yet appeared. A quadruple cross-index first shows how many brilliant thinkers have reflected upon the Bible. It gives the substance of their thoughts in pithy sentences. 2. Chronological annotations indicate the era to which each writer belongs. 3. Indexes by nationality and profession serve to locate authorities still more perfectly. 4. The topical index is in itself very suggestive.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.