N. W. AYER & SON'S AMERICAN NEWS- PAPER ANNUAL. 1881.

Contains a carefully prepared list of all newspapers and periodicals in the United States and Canada, arranged by States in geographical sections and by towns in alphabetical order; the name of the paper, the issue, general characteristics, year of establishment, size, circulation, and advertising rates. Its reports of the population of the country are very full and complete, including that of States, counties, and county seats. It also gives the political majorities and the greenback vote of States and counties at the Presidential election of 1880. A tabulated statement of newspapers is given on page 14. A description of every county in the United States, as well as of each State and Territory as a whole, and of the Canadian Provinces, giving valuable information concerning their mineral deposits, chief agricultural products, principal manufactures, nature of the surface and soil, area, location, etc. It is a volume from which information of the most varied use and importance can be obtained. Newspapers can only flourish in the midst of free, industrious and intelligent peoples. Here are specified and described more than nine thousand different American periodicals. It is a catalogue of national greatness and power. Published by N. W. Ayer & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.
